1 Registration

All participants MUST complete a Joyride 150 waiver before riding (see below)

<https://app.rockgympro.com/waiver/esign/joyride/2104a34e-159f-4417-b620-ef7e9f71aa24>

1.1 Competition Registration

Online entries are made through the Joyride Website (www.joyride150.com). It is necessary to sign up online prior to the event. The last day to register is April 10th 2025. Registration will be closed on April 11th.

1.1.1 Event Check In

On the event day, all registered competitors are required to Check In. This is simply done by visiting the Joyride 150 front counter and stating your name. The staff will check your registration & waiver forms – and the Chief Commissaire will check for UCI licence for all Elite category competitors. If both are complete and no further information is required, you will be provided with a wrist band. This wrist band will be your pass for the duration of the event – please do not take it off or lose it.

1.2 Competition Requirements

- 1) By participating in this event, you agree to be bound by all Cycling Canada and UCI Regulations and Policies
- 2) By participating you agree to be bound by all standard Joyride 150 Rules and Conditions – a full list of which can be seen here: <https://www.joyride150.com/rules/>
- 3) Each participant is engaged on their own behalf and those of their employees and agents, and must observe all the provisions of the Technical Guide and Freestyle BMX Regulations.
- 4) Every participant shall follow the directions of the organization and appointed officials, and any penalties that may be applied.
- 5) Ignorance of the provisions of the Technical Guide or the event schedule shall not be admitted as an excuse by any rider in any circumstances.

6) You certify that you have no contraindications (medical or otherwise) to practice a sport in competition.

7) You authorize the intervention of first aid, and if necessary, your transfer to medical services at the sole discretion of the event staff and event first aid personnel.

8) You authorize Cycling Canada, Joyride 150 and any other event Partners to:

- film and / or photograph you
- reproduce, exploit and disseminate whatever the medium, or the content produced.
- use your image and the said product contents whether for commercial and/or promotional purposes.

9) You will not disrupt the run / practice of another rider.

10) You are responsible for the supply of your own safety equipment.

11) You will not endanger any audience member or other participants during your run / practice.

12) You will not swear, act aggressively, or act in any way that may damage the reputation of Cycling Canada and Joyride 150 and any other partners. This will be enforced at the sole discretion of the event organizer or Cycling Canada TD.

13) You agree that you have entered this event on your own free will and you grant this from this day you will not ask for any remuneration or financial contribution from Cycling Canada, Joyride 150 or any other event partners. Penalties for violation of these requirements.

1.3 Competition Waiver

By entering this event, you understand that You, and each participant in the activities, will be engaging in activities involving a real risk of serious injury or even death from various causes including but not limited to equipment failure, accidents with other participants, spectators, course or weather conditions or other causes. You voluntarily accept all risks necessarily flowing from your participation, which could result in loss of life or injury. You also agree to be bound by all conditions & provisions in the standard Joyride 150 Wavier – these Conditions will apply to this Competition equally.

3 Event Format

Each Category of the event will have a set number of Rounds of Competition.

3.1 Youth Categories (7-14) Format

Made up of 1 round of competition. The result of this round will be the final placings.

Riders will be given 2 x 60 second runs.

3.2 Elite Format

Riders given 2 x 1min Runs for Elite on the course

- A run is determined by the judges confirming the rider is ready to start, the clock starts when they drop in. (A timeclock will also be displayed)
- A buzzer or whistle will sound at the end of 1 min. Any tricks not completed within this time will NOT count to the score.
- The Judges will score each run individually according to the Judging Criteria outlined below

Number of entries	Competition phases	Qualification Rule	Number of heats
5 - 8 entries	2 phases: Qualification x 1 Final x 1	Top 4 in Qualification advance to Final	1 heat of 4 in Final
9 – 15 entries	2 phases: Qualification x 1 Final x 1	Top 8 in Qualification advance to Final	2 heats of 4 in Final
16 - 31 entries	2 phases: Qualification x 1 Final x 1	Top 12 in Qualification advance to Final	2 heats of 6 in Final
More than 31 entries	3 phases: Qualification x 1 Semi-final x 1 Final x 1	Top 24 in Qualification advance to Semi-final Top 12 in Semi-final advance to Final	4 heats of 6 in Semifinal 2 heats of 6 in Final

With a field limit of 30 for Elite Men and 20 for Elite Women, there will be 2 rounds of competition. With top 12 from qualification advancing to finals.

Qualifying rounds will be broken into heats following ANNEX II - TABLE OF HEATS FOR PARK COMPETITIONS. Finals will be 2 heats of 6 with running order being reversed of qualifying placing.

*If either Mens or Womens categories do not reach a minimum of 16 entries or more, finals will only be 8 riders. Made up of 2 heats of 4. As per UCI Regulations linked here.

3.3 Judging Criteria

The performance of each rider is judged on overall impression including, but not limited to:

- Difficulty*	- Style	- Landings
- Height	- Consistency	- Use Of Course
- Flow	- Variety Of Tricks	- Execution
- Originality	- Control Of Tricks	- Progression
- Versatility	- B in ike Control

*(refers to not only the tricks performed but also the placement of the tricks within the course and the combinations used)

The overall composition of the runs is most important as the judges evaluate the sequences of tricks, the amount of risk in the routine, and how the rider uses the course. The judges take errors such as falls and stops into consideration.
